Our commitment is to serve you

Giving kids food that's nutritious - and appetizing to kids -- can be a challenge for in-house staff. So many other priorities take precedence. At Red Wagon, we are dedicated to the art and science of children's food. Our company chef has 35 years of experience in food service and works with our staff child nutritionist to create meals that appeal to the tastes of preschool children. We can also design carefully thought-out meals to accommodate children with special dietary needs.

How does it work?

Once a month, we give you a choice of a variety of new menus for the coming month. Using our web site, via phone or fax, you select your menu, choose one of our many delivery times, and you're done. It's that simple.

We offer customers a choice of three meal plans:

MEAL PLAN A: Lunch and two snacks

MEAL PLAN B: Lunch, breakfast, and two snacks

MEAL PLAN C: Either Meal Plan A or B with beverage selection

We deliver - on your schedule

We know how important schedules are to preschoolers. That's why Red Wagon guarantees

The Red Wagon Difference

Your center has a choice when it comes to food service. Following are some of the advantages to working with Red Wagon:

- ◆ Cost - Because we are dedicated to the business of food service for children, we can reduce the costs associated with in-house food preparation - such as food, labor and overhead - by as much as 30%. Factor in insurance and start-up costs and the savings can be much greater.
- ◆ Convenience - Eliminate the many tasks of in-house food service from your agenda forever -- grocery shopping, counting inventory, purchasing food from wholesalers, cleaning after meals, and food and health inspections.
- ◆ Child-Focused - Red Wagon takes care of all the details, so you can take care of the children. Allocate the space you used to use for food service to expand your center and add more children to your enrollment.
